Dear Mr. Sonobe,

Re: Letters to the Akaku Board of Directors

I received a facsimile copy of a letter dated April 21, 2006 regarding "Proposed Bylaw Amendments, Amended Meeting Agenda for April 24, 2006 Akaku Board of Directors Meeting." While I appreciate receiving a copy of this letter, the letter should be addressed to the interim/CEO Iris Cober and the Chairman of the Board of Directors Jay April

The proper etiquette in corresponding to the Board is generally not through the Board attorney or an attorney that has no official relationship to the corporation other than previously representing adverse parties in now-settled litigation. Matters which are legal in nature (i.e. Haw. Rev. Stat. 91 petitions, lawsuits) are appropriately addressed to my office.

Your comments are important, significant and relevant to the deliberations of the Board of Directors especially with regards to the emendation of the Bylaws. I will forward this letter to the Board for their consideration, and would encourage you to submit these types of correspondences directly to Board of Directors through the interim President and the Board Chairman in the future.

If you have any further questions regarding the appropriate persons to address when
